Capt. Mikkelsen Goes to Find Undiscovered Land Northwest of Alaska.

Anglo-American Explorers Leave Victoria, B. C., on Duchess of Bedford.

Depot Will Be Established on the Banks of the River Which to Search.

VICTORIA (B. C.) May 20.—The Duchess of Bedford, on which the Anglo-American Arctic expedition is embarked, sailed this evening for the Arctic with the object of seeking a large stretch of undiscovered land believed to exist in the Beaufort Sea, northwest of the Alaska Coast, and incidentally conduct geological, geographical and ethnological and other scientific works.

EJNAR MIKKELSEN.

logical and other scientific works. The expedition is headed by Capt. Ejnar Mikkelsen, a Danish navigator, who has been twice a member of Arctic expeditions, and Ernest De Lefingwell, a Chicago geologist who was in company with Mikkelsen, a member of the Baldwin expedition. The party also includes Ejnar Ditlevsen, a Danish artist; Zoologist George Howe of Harvard, and seven members of the navigation crew, a total of eleven. Ernest Stefansen of Harvard, an ethnologist, has started for Herschel Island to meet the vessel at a rendezvous there August 20.

OVER THE ICE. The Duchess of Bedford will sail to Kadiak; thence to Siberia to secure six dogs, and will then enter the Arctic through Behring Straits, skirting the shore to Banks Island, where a depot will be made from which various scientific expeditions will be taken over the ice. In the spring of 1907, Messrs. Mikkelsen and De Lefingwell will leave to journey over the ice in a northwest direction, taking provisions for 140 days, already prepared in compact sanded cases, with two dog teams, the intention being to kill dogs for food for the others, as the supplies decrease.

WILL FISH FOR LAND. This trip will be taken to make soundings through ice cracks, with the hope of locating the edge of the continental shelf and the stretch of land which, according to the theory of the explorers lies to the northwest of Alaska, in an expanse at present unknown.

The explorers have their theory on the drift of the Jeannette and other vessels, and the known flights of migratory birds, discoveries of Eskimo remains and stories of natives, who tell of land in the direction where they intend to explore. After they shall have started over the ice into the unknown, in the spring of 1907, the Duchess of Bedford will return to Victoria, bringing the result of the preliminary scientific work, and will then return north in charge of Dr. MacLaren of Glasgow, to find Mikkelsen and De Lefingwell. THE RETURN TRIP. When their search is successful, or the decrease of their provisions makes it necessary, they will strike across the ice towards Wrangel Island for the North Siberian coast, where they expect to be picked up in the fall of 1907.

HUGE CONFLAGRATION

SWEPT GREAT AREA.

Four Hundred Square Miles of Land a Blackened Waste.

From Sands to Talbot and from the Whitefish River and Northwestern Railroad to Waucesha, Wis., Settlers Have Lost Their All—Losses Will Aggregate Several Millions of Dollars.

By DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

ESCANABA (Mich.) May 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] By a tour made today of the entire district swept by forest fires, it was learned that the devastated territory covers a total of 400 square miles and caused a loss of several million dollars. The most northern point touched by the fire was at Sanda, Marquette county, while to the south, it extended to Talbot, Menominee county. On the west, the Whitefish River and the main line of the Northwestern road combined to form a boundary. The most easterly point of the burned district was at Waucesha, Wis. BLACKENED WASTES. Thousands of acres of cut-over timber lands are today a blackened waste. Sites of villages are marked by the remains of building foundations, and in some instances a few scattered houses.

THE HOMES OF HUNDREDS OF HOME-STEADERS HAVE DISAPPEARED. Their lands were burned over, and every piece of vegetation swept from the ground.

By interviews, today, with former residents of the different destroyed villages, it was learned that fires ignited at practically the same time at all points, and swept in a southeasterly direction in one awful conflagration.

Long jumps were taken by the flames, in many instances leaving untouched points that appeared to be threatened and striking in an unexpected quarter.

STICKING TO THE SITES. Throughout the burned district, today, settlers were seen to be standing on the ruins of their homes, where the houses were still hot, showing well the spirit which caused them to settle in a new district and to emerge from a catastrophe which destroyed their savings of years.

Not all are built of the same sturdy stuff, however, and frequently the train on which the inspection tour was made, today, picked up discouraged homesteaders with members of their families, and brought them to Escanaba, where they are being cared for.

THOUSANDS HOMELESS. MICHIGAN'S AWFUL DESOLATION. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) MILWAUKEE (Wis.) May 20.—A staff correspondent of the Sentinel who made a tour of the district in the upper peninsula of Michigan covered by the forest fires in a special train, the first train to go through the district since the catastrophe, telegraphs that the fire appears to be practically out in all of the district.

The fire raged for a distance of sixty-four miles along the line of the Escanaba and Lake Superior, and for forty miles beyond Channing; the western terminus of the road.

It seems certain now that 2000 persons are homeless in that district and that 1000 are left desolate at Quinnesec.

THE QUINNESEC FIRE. The Quinnesec fire, however, was of a different origin from the Escanaba fire having started in a field where men were pulling stumps and burning

WAR UPON RULER.

Nick Has Affronted Lower House.

He Gives Notice He Will Not Receive Deputation to Present Its Address.

Leaders Hastily Summon a Caucus to Keep Enraged Members Controlled.

Radicals Are Likely to Break Away Today and Take Fiery Action.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.] S. T. PETERSBURG, May 20.—A bomb was thrown into the Parliamentary camp, this afternoon, by a note received by President Mourmoutseff of the lower house from Peterhoff.

Instead of making an appointment for an audience at which he and the deputation could present the address in reply to the speech from the throne, the note contained the information that Emperor Nicholas would not receive the deputation, and that the address must be presented through the ministry of the court.

CAUCUS HASTILY CALLED. Disconcerted utterly at this unexpected development, the leaders of the majority in the House hastily summoned a caucus of the Constitutional Democratic deputies.

President Mourmoutseff, instead of sending the address to Baron Fredericks, Minister of the Imperial Household, immediately issued a call for a meeting of Parliament at 11 o'clock tomorrow, at which he will report the occurrence and ask for further instructions.

A most heated meeting in prospect. The first disposition of the caucus of the Constitutional Democrats, which was in session all afternoon and evening, and at midnight had not concluded, was to regard the refusal to receive the deputation as a challenge and an open affront, which was only answerable by a counter declaration of war.

RED WITH RAGE. The deputies were red with rage, but after the first passion had cooled, the leaders realized the danger of too precipitate action, and set for themselves the task of bringing their enraged followers under control.

Outsiders were not admitted to the caucus, but through the glass doors of the great hall of the Constitutional Club, where the session was held, it could be seen that Prof. Milukoff, Prince Dolgoroukhoff and others were on their feet time and again, pleading with and commanding their auditors to act deliberately and firmly, and not to ruin all by unfeeling passion.

RADICALS REVOLTING. The cooler councils seemed ultimately to be prevailing, but it is almost certain that the radical group, accompanied by a portion of the peasants, will break away tomorrow, and endeavor to force the House into some fiery declaration against the Emperor and the government.

This might compel an immediate rupture, entailing dissolution and civil war.

CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTION. An interesting constitutional point is involved in the refusal of a personal audience by the Emperor.

According to the parliamentary law "the President submits to the Emperor the transactions of the lower house," but it is not stated whether he does so personally, and a deputation is nowhere authorized.

SIZING UP DELEGATION. The Associated Press is informed by a member of the Ministry that Emperor Nicholas was willing to receive President Mourmoutseff, but that the action of the House in appointing a delegation to accompany him was regarded as a dangerous precedent, capable of being stretched to include a deputation of any size—even the whole of the membership of the House.

KEEPING THEM IN BOUNDS. This Minister intimated that if the leaders of the House desired to avoid a rupture, they could do so either by accepting the instructions to present the address through the Ministry of the court, as a proper and justifiable matter of routine, or could, by keeping within the limits of the constitutional provision, direct the President of the House to apply alone for an audience.

It was pointed out that no distinction had been made between the lower house and the Council of the Empire, and that the last-named body has also been instructed to present its address through the same channel.

President Mourmoutseff went to Peterhoff this evening, in order to be presented to the Emperor, who had no opportunity of meeting him during the ceremonies of Saturday. He did not see the Emperor.

SAVING COIN TO ZIONITES.

VOLIVA REDUCES THE EXPENSES NEARLY TWO-THIRDS.

Saving in Ecclesiastical Department Will Amount to Seventy Thousand Dollars Annually—John G. Excell Resigns as General Secretary—Report to Federal Judge Landis Made.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.] CHICAGO, May 20.—W. G. Voliva, the present head of the Christian Catholic church, announced to his followers in Zion City today that between January 15 and May 19 he had reduced expenses in the financial department of the church from $9800 per month to $3332 per month. This saving, he said, had been brought about by a reduction of the working force and a cut in the salaries of those retained. In the same manner, he said, a saving had been made in the ecclesiastical department that would amount to $70,000 annually. Overseers who had been receiving $500 per month were reduced to $60. The pay of others was cut in proportion. His own compensation under the new adjustment, Voliva said, was $100 per month. These facts, he said, were some of the details of a report which he made yesterday to a committee appointed by Federal Judge Landis to investigate the condition of the industries in Zion City.

Voliva announced the resignation of John G. Excell from the office of general ecclesiastical secretary, owing to the lack of sympathy with some of the doctrines of the church.

The condition of John Alexander Davis was said to be practically unchanged.

DATTO BRYAN HONORED. Regular Democratic Office Seeker is Given Chance to Make Speech to Syrian Boys.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] BEYROUT, May 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bryan, with their son and daughter, arrived here on April 23. Taking a trip for Damascus, they spent the early part of the week in visiting the city and in viewing the ruins at Baalbek.

On their return to Beyrout the Bryans were the guests of Howard S. Bliss, president of the Syrian Protestant College, the largest educational institution in Syria. In the assembly hall of the college, Col. Bryan addressed 1200 people, comprising the students and their American teachers. He is enjoying his circuit of the globe and is the picture of health.

The Governor of Beyrout placed his private carriage and military escort at Bryan's disposal and he was shown every courtesy by the Turkish officials while here.

THE HAGUE SIGNATORIES. THE HAGUE, May 20.—The government has submitted a bill asking the second chamber of Parliament to approve a protocol which it wishes the signatories of the convention of 1893 to sign on assembling for the second peace conference and which declares that the powers not represented at the conference, but which have been invited to attend the second, shall, by acceptance of the invitation, become adherents to that convention.

G.A.R. AND "FLAG DAY." WASHINGTON, May 20.—The proper observance of "Flag Day" by all the members of the Grand Army of the Republic generally is urged by Commander-in-Chief Tanner in general orders, in which he calls attention to the action of the last encampment recognizing June 14 for that purpose.

FUNERALS TIED UP. Another Strike of Drivers in New York Cause the Dead to Lie Waiting.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.] NEW YORK, May 20.—A strike of the Funeral Drivers' Association, Local No. 164, which involved the whole territory of Manhattan below Fourteenth street went into effect today. The fact that twelve of the thirty-five coach owners affected acceded to the demands of the strikers lessened the inconvenience, but about thirty-five funerals had to be postponed, and others were conducted under difficulties.

ROARING FLAMES STORM JAMAICA BAY.

By DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

NEW YORK, May 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Fire has destroyed the plant of the New York Sanitary Utilization Company, situated on Barren Island, in Jamaica Bay. The loss amounted to $1,000,000.

Although under control, the flames were still burning early this morning. Several firemen and workmen were overcome.

Most of the garbage of New York City was removed by this concern to its plant, where it was converted into divers kinds of soil fertilizers. Starting from an unknown cause, the disgusting plant, the flames spread to an adjoining pump building in a few moments.

Left almost powerless, the volunteer fire department of the island was forced to let the flames eat their course through the plant.

Driven by a brisk northwest wind, the fire hurried itself from the pump building to the boiler houses, on through the massive building, in which were forty hydraulic presses, valued at $350,000 each, and beyond to storehouses containing 20,000 tons of fertilizers.

SOLID SHEET OF FLAME. Like so much paper, the mass of stacked burlap sacks burst into a solid sheet of flame, which, caught in the swirling grasp of the wind, was blown over the roofs to the upper plant. Several of the firemen were revived with difficulty.

CHINA AWAKENS

TOTS POWER.

AMAZING STRIDES.

While Preferring to Be Let Alone,
the Insults That Have Been Heaped
Upon the Country's Natives Have Made the Menace Rise in Its
Might and Soon It May Show Teeth

"Asia for the Asiatics" is the idea that permeates the whole Chinese Empire," said Dr. Arthur Smith last night in his eloquent and effective address before the Congregational Congress. "It is absolutely astounding to see the changes that are taking place over there. It is a process of evolution even before our eyes."

"A few years ago China began slowly to ferment. The Chinese, you know, are slow, but they are very sure. China will yet move too fast and she already has begun. You are now confronting one of the most marvelous changes ever known in the world. The tide is rising all the time. It is like a great wall which hitherto has been a mass of jelly with no backbone apparent, now surging forward as a solid setting, the use of its backbone, and feeling the harpoons thrust into him, make things uncomfortable for the people who inhabit it."

"The Chinese are not a warlike people. They always have despised military power. They never wished to organize armies, they were predisposed against the yellow peril is utter nonsense. It is just as probable that icebergs would melt under the sun as that the big ship at New York Harbor and break off a piece of Long Island."

Dr. Smith talks with authority, for he has lived in China for many years in China, and therefore speaks from actual knowledge and experience. He is the author of "Chinese Characteristics," most remarkable book on China, and is better posted probably than any other living American on the exact conditions and problems that confront the Orient today.

He called attention to the wonderful conservatism of the Chinese people, their aversion to change in industry. He drew comparisons between them and the American nation that were not of a complimentary nature, but what we please to consider our superiority.

"The Americans are afflicted with intelligent ignorance," he declared; "they have vast stores of practical knowledge on every subject under the sun. The elaborate ignorance of Americans, the wisdom of the Chinese, the ancient and educated emperors were born centuries before Columbus discovered this continent."

He pointed out also to the fact that in 1885 the Supreme Court of California passed a law rating the Chinese the same as negroes.

"They have long since not yet forgotten it," he added. "We Americans are a proud, insolent people. We have nicknames for everybody—'dagos,' 'niggers' and 'chinks.'"

The question of Chinese immigration resolves itself into this: "Are we going to let them stay or not?"

"If the Chinese do so," he said, "as much as any other nations there may be trouble," he warned. "America should shut her doors to the Chinese groups. It has been suggested that a commission be appointed to go to China and confer with that empire. America must take care to keep up the reputation that she ever confronted any nation, if she throws open her doors to the Chinese students who are knocking to get places to live in even as rapidly as with us within ten or twenty years."

THIS CONDITION IMPROVED.

Mrs. W. English, of Washington Boulevard, St. Louis, who was stricken by the train with an acute nervous trouble resembling paralysis Saturday afternoon, taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital, now recovering, says she was entertained for his ultimate recovery Mr. English is a prominent member of the American Tobacco company, and has been in southern California during the past year for his health. He was on his way with Mrs. English from Redlands to visit Frank Taylor, now residing in California, when he was struck by the train on Washington street, whom he had known in St. Louis and who has recently come to Los Angeles from Oaxaca, Mexico. Both the lady and her husband were dangerously sick, and for a while his condition was very grave.

LABORER FATALLY INJURED.

Cruz Vargas, a Mexican laborer, was crushed by the crew of Santa Ana car, No. 283 near Lugo station at 11:30 p.m., Sunday night, lying near the car tracks in an unconscious position, a skull being entirely crushed in on the left side. The unconscious man lay face down, his head broken and hurled to the Receiving Hospital at Calvary. Surgeons found his injuries fatal, but every possible effort was made to recover him. The appearance of Cruz Vargas' clothing, it is believed, came from another car on the line while standing near the steps; his closed his desk and went out to work, where he was killed by the car without passengers. Vargas had been under arrest several times for disorderly conduct, and has numerous knife scars on his body.

The Knot Reminded Him.

Hiram Bobbe was absent minded, admitted that himself. Still, even was occasionally surprised by his own failings. One morning he reached his office unannounced late.

"Dear me," he thought, "where can I have been?"

The answer was not forthcoming. Hiram sat down at his desk and took up the paper and saw a checkered tie knotted about his neck. It was a tightly in a knot.

"Now," he exclaimed, "what was that for? Oh, yes; Marthy told me to tie my necktie."

With an air of resignation to the whims of womanhood, he put on his shoes, closed his desk and went out to work, where he was killed by the car without passengers.

JOYS OF LIFE IN KANSAS.

These days of volcanoes and earthquakes the Kansas looks at his occasional shocks as a chance to draw into almost forgotten grasshopper with a commendable toleration. The grasshoppers may come wet; they may be dry or little rain along the cattle and a few chinks in the wheat; the wind may blow the dust and sand over in the next day, and the drought may be over. The coupons on the mortgages are in a while, but after all, Kansas is a chance to draw into a cyclone may gallop along and leave a few of the Kansas farmer's life in chaos, the wind brings enough for his neighbors' houses goods on the lower eight acres creek to start housekeeping. And the winds are a chance to draw into a trade hole and let the winds blow the storms rage. But an earthquake turns the 'frail hole wrong side up' and shakes the ground down on under side of it.—(Emporia Ga-

RETURNS FROM RELIEF.
Minneapolis Clergyman Praises Los Angeles Generosity to the Stricken City.

Rev. William Wilkinson, general missionary in the diocese of Bishop Edsell of Minneapolis, Minn., is in Los Angeles, a guest at the Hollenbeck Hotel. He will start East today, after a month of arduous labor among the relief committees at Oakland and San Francisco.

Immediately after news of the San Francisco disaster reached Minneapolis, Rev. Mr. Wilkinson was sent by the business men of that city to San Francisco to assist the clergy in their work of relief.

He labored with the Episcopal rectors in Oakland and also in San Francisco; and was enabled to be of much service to the stricken city. Yesterday morning he spoke in the Church of the Epiphany, East Los Angeles, detailing some of his observations while in the stricken city and particularly dwelling on the splendid work of the contributors of Los Angeles.

"No city in America has made such a noble record for generosity and sympathetic help," he said. "Los Angeles has won the hearts of the citizenship of this entire country by her prompt, efficient acts of kindness and her timely help for her sister city. I was where I could see it all, and it was wonderful—simply wonderful."

"From most unexpected sources poured in contributions for relief. The liberality was surprising. It was a splendid demonstration of the great generosity of the American people."

"While in Oakland, I had the opportunity to preach at Idora Park, at Adams Point, and on the street, and I can never forget the personal of those congregations, and the earnestness with which they received the words of comfort and consolation. I was enabled to give them."

"The work of the churches in this calamity was a most noble one. These offices indeed became houses of refuge. All denominations made records for humanitarian work, and the experience will have a vastly broadening effect on the Christian people of this country. While this calamity was a terrible thing in many phases, it still has its points which will prove the advantage to the American people, and the chief of these was the lesson learned of forgetting one's self and the great sacrifice of money, and the healing of the call of distress. The world is better today because of the experiences through which it passed on account of this San Francisco disaster."

DRUMMER EVANGELIST.

Tells of His "Last Rump With the Tiger" and Advises "No Wild Oats" for Young Men.

W. H. Williams, the "Drummer Evangelist" of San José, who, with his wife, is spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. W. B. Mansfield of No. 1723 West Twenty-third street, last night gave his lecture, "The Last Rump With the Tiger," before a large congregation at the Methodist church in Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams leave on Wednesday for a series of meetings and lectures in the Eastern States. They will hold revival meetings at Kingman, Ariz.; Santa Fe, Las Vegas, Springer and Raton, N. M.; Trinidad, Colo.; Elgin, Ill.; Allerton, Iowa, and Topeka, Kan., after which they will return to California for next winter's work. Mr. Williams will speak at several Chautauqua gatherings in the East, and will lecture on the earthquake and fire experiences through which he has passed. He has shown his faith in San José, his home town, by the purchase of two houses and lots there since the earthquake.

"There seems to be an impression in the minds of some that a boy will be better fitted for after life by 'seeing the elephant,' 'sowing wild oats' and 'painting the town red.' The young man that will make the best man of today will never see the inside of a gin mill nor cross the threshold of a house of ill repute. It is a lie born of the devil that he will be 'better for sowing wild oats.' When drink comes on, grace goes out. You cannot keep red liquor and the grace of God in the same hide as the same time. I could not take a drink of whiskey today and keep my heart in tune with the music of heaven any more than I could steal, lie or swear. When I had money, everybody else had money, but when I was busted, I had money the saloon met me with smiles, but when my money was gone, it had no more smiles for me. This old world is cold to a man who is down, colder than Greenland to a woman who is down. If this old world had any love and response in it, Jesus Christ would have loved it to death a thousand years ago."
